63D CONGRESS,
1ST SESSION.

S. 571.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

APRIL 9, 1913.

Mr. PENROSE introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

A BILL

To construct a Lincoln memorial highway from the White House, Washington, District of Columbia, to the battle field of Gettysburg, in the State of Pennsylvania.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That as a national tribute of affection to Abraham Lincoln, late President of the United States, a great memorial highway, not less than two hundred feet wide, be constructed from the neighborhood of the White House, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, to the battle field of Gettysburg, in the State of Pennsylvania.

SEC. 2. That for the construction of the said memorial highway, the building of an appropriate architectural entrance to the highway in the city of Washington, and a fitting terminal structure on the battle field of Gettysburg, the sum of $3,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be,

1 and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any money in
2 the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

3 SEC. 3. That the said memorial highway shall be con-
4 structed under the direction of a commission, the members
5 of which shall be appointed by the President of the United 6 States. The President of the United States shall also fix the 7 compensation and the tenure of office of the commissioners
8 appointed under authority of this Act.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2011 with funding from
The Institute of Museum and Libra...The Institute of Museum and Library Services through an Indiana State Library LSTA Grant

http://www.archive.org/details/billtoconstructl00penr

71.2009 084.07742

63D CONGRESS, 1ST SESSION. } S. 571.

A BILL

To construct a Lincoln memorial highway from the White House, Washington, District of Columbia, to the battle field of Gettysburg, in the State of Pennsylvania.

By Mr. PENROSE.

APRIL 9, 1913.—Read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.